CCCU Promotes Jessica Gafeney to Assistant Vice President

[LAS VEGAS, Nev.] – May 3, 2017 – Clark County Credit Union (CCCU) announces it has promoted long-time employee Jessica Gafeney to Assistant Vice President responsible for branch sales and service.

Since 2005, Gafeney has held many positions at CCCU beginning as a teller. Her knowledge of the company and ability to connect with people is invaluable as she oversees the six CCCU branches and Loan Contact Center.

“Jessica’s previous positions working directly with our members, combined with her leadership experience, makes her uniquely qualified for the position of AVP,” said Matt Kershaw, CEO of CCCU. “We believe this new position will help CCCU be proactive and stay ahead of any customer service trends.”

In her career, Gafeney is motivated to not only succeed herself, but to help CCCU members have healthy finances. She enjoys being part of a company that offers great service and employees who genuinely care about the members and help them accomplish their dreams.

“I am excited to take this next step in my career with CCCU,” said Gafeney. “Having a new position solely dedicated to the in-branch experience will help us find new ways to improve our member service and help CCCU members manage their finances efficiently.”

ABOUT CLARK COUNTY CREDIT UNION
