Clark County Credit Union Celebrates Law Enforcement Appreciation Week

[LAS VEGAS, Nev.] – January 8, 2021 – Law enforcement officers in Clark County and across the nation have chosen a profession that puts their life on the line every day for their communities. National Law Enforcement Day is Saturday, January 9 and to show appreciation, Clark County Credit Union (CCCU) is celebrating “Law Enforcement Appreciation Week” to thank one of the credit union’s main member groups.

From January 8 through January 15, CCCU will host an enter-to-win giveaway with a chance for members of law enforcement to win one of five $50 Café Rio gift cards and a grand prize of a $1,000 VISA gift card. Law enforcement officers, their friends and families are invited to nominate themselves or their favorite officer via CCCU social media channels or the nomination link at www.ccculv.org/lawenforcement for a chance to win. They do not have to be a member of CCCU to win.

In addition to the giveaway, CCCU employees at branches across the valley will wear blue to show their support for law enforcement on Friday, January 8. CCCU will also visit Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, Henderson Police and North Las Vegas Police command centers on Friday, Jan. 8 to deliver individually wrapped blue sugar cookies from a local bakery.

“Clark County Credit Union was founded in 1951 with law enforcement being one of our first employer groups to join. We cannot say thank you enough to the law enforcement officers who work day-in and day-out to keep our community safe,” says Matt Kershaw, President and CEO of CCCU. “We are proud to spend a week celebrating their service and their continued membership with the credit union.”
