Clark County Credit Union Named Top 200 Healthiest Credit Unions

[LAS VEGAS, Nev.] – September 7, 2021 – Clark County Credit Union (CCCU) located in Southern Nevada, was recently recognized as one of the Top 200 Healthiest Credit Unions for Deposit Accounts by Lending Tree, receiving an A+ health rating. Each year, Lending Tree evaluates financial institutions across the nation.

With approximately 5,000 credit unions in the United States, CCCU's 2021 ranking puts them in the top 3 percent of all credit unions for financial health.

CCCU's President and CEO Matt Kershaw, who has been with the credit union since 2005, said, "The A+ health designation we received means we are financially solvent and strong enough to withstand challenges like changes in legislation and the ups and downs of our local economy."

The credit union recently reached $1 billion in assets and has continued to hit other important financial goals. "Members can trust CCCU because we have the resources to get them the products and technology they expect from their financial institution," said Kershaw. "Our more than 48,000 members should feel confident that CCCU is here to stay and is ready to help them achieve their financial goals and dreams."

Lending Tree evaluated financial Institutions based on their services and offerings, interest rates on deposits, value on brokered CDs, fees and hassles, deposit growth and capitalization. Financial institutions with stronger capital had more assets to cover potential losses.
