The Perfect Bite Episode #4: Steak Frites From Honey Salt and Building Your Emergency Fund

In this fourth bite, join co-hosts Crystal Price and Shannon Hiller from Clark County Credit Union as they plan for a beautifully messy and tasty meal at Honey Salt, discuss why an emergency fund is more than just extra cash, and a self-assessment to help create your emergency fund. You'll learn how to build your emergency fund in stages, recognize how you feel about your finances, and some fun names for cocktails. This episode covers everything from Honey Salt to emergency funds. Here's a small sample of what you will hear in this episode:

- What questions should you ask yourself about your finances?
- How was Honey Salt?
- What can you do to start saving up an emergency fund?
- How does Banzai help?
- What is a Secondary Savings Account?
- How do you feel about your finances?
- Could you cover an unplanned $1,000 expense?
- What's the purpose of an emergency fund?
