

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
December 6, 2017

Media Contact: Shannon Hiller
hillershannon@yahoo.com

CCCU Promotes Julie Goe to Marketing Manager

[Las Vegas, Nev.] December 6, 2017 - Clark County Credit Union (CCCU) recently promoted Julie Goe from Marketing Coordinator to Marketing Manager, a position that works with and promotes all six of the credit union's full-service branches.

Goe has been with CCCU since 2004 when she started as a teller, later gaining experience in the loan department and Members Auto, the credit union-owned auto broker. She joined the marketing department in 2015 where she has become an integral part of the team.

Goe says she is passionate about her job in marketing and loves that there is always something new and challenging to work on. "I am constantly learning and getting out of my comfort zone," said Goe. "Whether it's designing a new marketing campaign or finding a way to help new members learn about our products, services and the annual dividend, I enjoy stretching my skills."

Her current goals are to finish grad school and run a full marathon. With her dedication to her career, desire to help others and her focus on these goals; she's well on her way.

ABOUT CLARK COUNTY CREDIT UNION

Founded in 1951, CCCU is a not-for-profit financial institution serving over 40,000 members who are municipal employees (Clark County, City of Henderson, City of Las Vegas and City of North Las Vegas), medical professionals, members of Nevada Public Radio (KNPR) and numerous select employer groups. CCCU has assets of $700 million and six branches throughout the Las Vegas valley. More information about CCCU can be found online at www.ccculv.org.

- MORE -

- END -