The Perfect Bite Episode #7: KoMex and Teaching Your Children About Finances

In this seventh bite, join co-hosts Crystal Price and Shannon Hiller from Clark County Credit Union as they experience Korean-Mexican fusion at KoMex, share how to be your child's finance teacher, and reveal financial tools to get your family to the head of the class. You'll learn how to make it fun for your kids to learn about money, what financial topics to discuss at different ages, and a delicious fusion dish featured on the Food Network. This episode covers everything from delicious treats to valuable finance insights. Here's a small sample of what you will hear in this episode:

- How was KoMex?
- What is gochujang sauce?
- How do you teach your kids about finances?
- What are the hardest things to talk about with your kids?
- How does Crystal teach finances to her kids?
- Does she help her kids budget?
- What is the Banzai finance tool?
- Does Crystal talk to her kids about finance in college?
