Clark County CU Celebrates Ninth Annual Nurses Week

[LAS VEGAS, Nev.] – April 8, 2022 – Clark County Credit Union (CCCU) will yet again honor local nurses and future nurses with its Ninth Annual Nurses Week celebration. CCCU is Nevada’s state-chartered credit union for medical professionals.

The credit union will be giving away $2,000 in prizes along with gift basket deliveries to fourteen area hospitals and local nursing school programs. The credit union is accepting entries now through May 12, 2022. To enter, visit <https://info.ccculv.org/nurses-week>. Local nurses and nursing students are eligible to win. Membership with the credit union is not required to win prizes.

“We honor and respect our community’s nursing professionals,” said CEO Matt Kershaw. “In every aspect of health care, we recognize them for the compassionate care and assistance they render to our loved ones.”

In addition, CCCU is here to help with the financial health of busy nurses as well as all Southern Nevada residents. The credit union provides all members access to free financial education tools through its partner Banzai, including online calculators, digital coaches and helpful articles that provide quick tips and down to earth financial advice.
